CITY AND DISTRICT.

Friends Deny Statement.
 The relatives and friends of the late Mr. Ashburne, who came to his death accidentally at 813 Mount Vernon place northwest, Sunday, June 10, 1906, deny that Mr. Ashburne was ignorant of the use of gas. The deceased gentleman was on a visit to his uncle, the Rev. Mr. Gill of M. P. Church, on Sunday, June 10, 1906, and was present at the social meeting held in the parlors of the Riggs House, and the treasurer, Mrs. E. Mayneville Stillman, spoke of the financial condition of the association. The greater part of the evening was spent in plans for the coming convention of the International League of Press Clubs in Denver the 27th of August next.

CLASS NIGHT PROGRAM.

EXERCISES HELD IN BUSINESS SCHOOL ASSEMBLY HALL.

Class night exercises of the graduating class of the Business High School were held last evening in the large assembly hall of the school building, which was packed to the doors with friends and relatives of the students. Seated on the stage were the officers of the class and Principal Allan Davis, and to the right, hidden behind large palms, was an orchestra that rendered appropriate selections throughout the evening.
 The exercises opened with selections, "High School Cadets" and "King Dodo," by the orchestra. Mr. Elmer L. Irey, president of the class, then delivered the address of welcome. He said: "It gives us great pleasure to have here this evening so many of the friends of the Business High School, the largest class that ever graduated from the Business High School, but it is very far from being the smallest. It is not, perhaps, the most brilliant class that ever went out of a school into the business world, but we are sure it is up to the average. The class thus far has done little to show its real capabilities, but in any case it has done a great deal to show the world that the confidence placed by the members of the faculty in the 158 members of the class of 1906 has not been misplaced."
 In introducing the class historian Mr. Irey said: "It will be well, however, for you to hear what the class has done before you hear what it is going to do; and we have for our historian one beside whom Herodotus would have ranked as a mere beginner. Not that Herodotus was not all right when he came to history, but that no one could put in writing the history of the class of 1906 quite so well as Miss Rosenbale." The orchestra then rendered "Happy Days."

Miss Blanche R. Struble delivered the prophecy for sections A2, D2, E2 and H2; a selection, "Euryometer," was rendered by the orchestra. Miss Ethel F. Harper delivered the prophecy for sections B2, C2, F2 and G2; "When Vacation Is Over" was sung by eight boys and eight girls of the class. To the tune of "In the Sweet By and By," Mr. Harry M. Chaney delivered the class poem, and the orchestra rendered "Prince of Pilsen."

The Addresses.
 Mr. W. A. Porterfield delivered the address to the undergraduates. Miss Irene Dietrich, accompanied on the piano by Miss Stella Dietrich, sang several songs, selections. Mr. P. McColl Mercer replied to the address of Mr. Porterfield to the undergraduates. The orchestra rendered "Moonlight."

Mr. Porterfield then addressed the school, delivered the faculty address. The orchestra then rendered "Little Johnny Jones." Mr. S. Worcester Mason was valedictorian. The exercises closed with a selection by the orchestra, "Yankee Grit."

The officers of the class are: President, Elmer L. Irey; vice president, Norman E. Adams; secretary, Jennie J. Friel; treasurer, Ernest S. Johnston.
 Executive committee—Kenneth Armstrong, Charles R. Artz, Mary M. Betsy, Mary Biggins, Harry M. Chaney, Joseph Childs, Minnie B. Curtis, August Dangel, William O. Gibson, Katherine T. Liston, Emily G. Rosemond, Myrtle C. Scotland, Agnes Stoutenburgh, Walter W. Tolson, Merrill Willberger, John P. Yeatman.

In a Dazed Condition.
 Daniel L. Robertson, forty-one years of age, was taken to the Casualty Hospital yesterday afternoon about four o'clock and treated by Dr. Hays. He was in a dazed condition when found in his room by his mother at the family home, 711 13th street southeast. The condition of Mr. Robertson was caused by the use of chloroform liniment.

When Mrs. Robertson found her son in the condition stated she summoned assistance and the police of the 14th precinct were called with the patrol. The sick man was hurried to the hospital, where he soon revived under treatment.

REMAINS ARRIVED BY STEAMER THIS MORNING.

The remains of Second Lieut. J. B. G. McClure, Company, Coast Artillery, who died suddenly at Port Monroe, Va., Thursday, arrived here this morning on the Norfolk steamer and were taken to the receiving vault at the Arlington National cemetery, where the interment took place this afternoon with full military honors. Religious services were conducted by Chaplain Charles C. Pierce, Artillery Corps, and at the grave the remains were escorted to the vault by a platoon of cavalry, dismounted. A volley of musketry was fired and taps was sounded and the ceremony was over. At the request of the family, eight officers stationed at the post at Fort Myer, selected by the colonel commanding, acted as honorary pallbearers.

EXCURSIONS.

Sunday at Marshall Hall is always looked forward to in summer time as a day of rest and recreation. One of the features is the presence of Prof. Schroeder's band, and an unusually pleasing program has been arranged for tomorrow. Another feature is the excellent meals, cooked and served in first-class style, on arrival of the boat. The steamer Charles Maclester will make three trips tomorrow, leaving the Hall at 1, 5 and 9 p.m. All the amusements to please the old and young will be in active operation.

The big steamer St. Johns will make her regular week-end trips to Colonial Beach this week, leaving here this afternoon at 5:45 o'clock and again tomorrow morning at 8:45 o'clock. The river grows busier as the beach, mosquitoes are practically unknown, and at night blankets are not uncomfortable on the beds. The fishing and crabbing are both in the best of the season, and the bathing cannot be excelled anywhere on the Potomac. These outings can be taken without losing any time from business, for the steamer leaves Saturday afternoon at 5:45 o'clock and again tomorrow morning at 8:45 o'clock. Those who are desirous of finding a pleasant way to spend a hot Sunday, as tomorrow promises to be, will find the steamer Queen Anne here at 11 a.m. or 2:30 p.m., go down to River View, spend several hours in the cool shade of the big trees and eat a good dinner, and will reach the steamer at 4:30 p.m. The steamer Queen Anne will make her usual Sunday trip this week. There is a charm about Chevy Chase Lake that never seems to lose its attractiveness. The splendid music, the Marine Band Orchestra plays every evening, dancing privileges, the artistic illuminations, etc., are all there to enjoy them. Concert hours are from 7:30 to 11 p.m. There is, of course, no dancing Sundays, but special programs are rendered then.

The demand for accommodations for the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company's special excursion and dining car meals is the unusual popularity which these trips have attained. The reduced rate at which round trip tickets are sold, and the scope of the outing—it gives two nights on the water and a day at Old Point Comfort, Norfolk or Virginia Beach—present much allurements for the tourist. The superior appointments of the boats insure perfect comfort. The sailing hour is 8:30 p.m. Saturday, and excursionists returning to the city in time for business Monday morning.

Those who enjoy trolley riding will find pleasure in taking the trip via the Kensington Electric cars, which run from Chevy Chase Lake across beautiful Rock Creek valley to Kensington. The road is fine and even, the cars well equipped and the scenery en route particularly picturesque. Encouraging news was given of the social meeting held in the parlors of the Riggs House, and the treasurer, Mrs. E. Mayneville Stillman, spoke of the financial condition of the association. The greater part of the evening was spent in plans for the coming convention of the International League of Press Clubs in Denver the 27th of August next.

Legion of Loyal Women Take Outing.
 The annual outing of the Legion of Loyal Women was held at Luna Park Thursday the 14th. The ladies of the legion were unanimous in praise of the good treatment they received at the hands of the management. Thursday being the legist held patriotic services in the pavilion at 7 o'clock p.m., but owing to the inclement weather many of the members and their families were unable to be present. The exercises were carried out as follows: Singing of "Star Spangled Banner" by Mrs. Florence Donohue; the reading of the original poem, by Dr. Thomas Calver; solo, "The Starry Flag," sung by Mrs. Donohue, words by Dr. Calver.
